Understanding Insurance

Exams:

VRx Medical requires our patients to do an exam every 30 to 60 days. The reason we require this in our clinics is for documentation. These exams every 30 to 60 days help our clinics to provide your insurance companies with medical necessity and proof of needing the treatment when they request medical records from our offices. This is one of the many ways we do what we can to help get you the most out of your insurance benefits.

Physical Therapy:

VRx Medical bills under your physical therapy benefits in our clinics. Since we bill these benefits you are unable to be seen in one of our clinics on the same day you are seen by your physical therapist. We also cannot see you in both of our clinics on the same day.

Blood Work:

VRx Medical outsources our blood work to a company called Med Scan. We will draw your blood in clinic and overnight it to Med Scan where they will do all the testing and send the results back to us. Med Scan does all of the billing in-house, we are not held responsible for anything they bill to your insurance company. Med Scan is an out-of-network company so you will more than likely get a statement from them. When you receive this bill keep in mind that they are patient friendly. You may also call us and we are more than happy to help guide you through the process of contacting them.

Massage Informed Consent

Dear Patient,

Every type of health care is associated with some risk of a potential problem. We want you to be informed about potential problems associated with medical massage health care before consenting to treatment. This is called informed consent.

In this office, we use trained assistants who may assist the physician with portions of your consultation, examination, physical therapy application, massage therapy, exercise instruction, etc. On the occasion when your physician is unavailable, your care may be handled by another physician or trained assistant.

Stroke: Stroke is the most serious problem associated with massage therapy. Stroke means that a portion of the brain does not receive oxygen from the blood stream. The results can be temporary or permanent dysfunction of the brain, with a very rare complication of death.

Soft Tissue Injury: Soft tissue primarily refers to muscles and ligaments. Muscles move bones and ligaments limit joint movement. These problems occur so rarely that there are no available statistics to quantify their probability.

Physical Therapy Burns: Some machines we use generate heat. We also use both heat and ice, and occasionally recommend them for home use. Everyone's skin has different sensitivity to these modalities and rarely, heat or ice can burn or irritate the skin. The result is a temporary increase in skin pain, and there may be some blistering of the skin. These problems occur so rarely that there are no available statistics to quantify their probability.

Soreness: It is common for massage therapy, exercise, etc., to result in a temporary increase in soreness in the region being treated. This is nearly always a temporary symptom that occurs while your body is undergoing therapeutic change. It is not dangerous, but if it occurs, be sure to inform your physician.

Other Problems: There may be other problems or complications that might arise from massage therapy treatment other than those noted above. These other problems or complications occur so rarely that it is not possible to anticipate and/or explain them all in advance of treatment.

Massage therapy is a system of health care delivery, and therefore, as with any health care delivery system, we cannot promise a cure for any symptom, disease, or condition as a result of treatment in this clinic. We will always provide you with the best care and if results are not acceptable, we will refer you to another health care provider who we feel may assist your condition.

If you have any questions on the above information, please ask your physician. Once you have a full understanding, please sign and date below.

Chiropractic Informed Consent

Dear Patient,

Every type of health care is associated with some risk of a potential problem. This includes chiropractic care. We want you to be informed about potential problems associated with chiropractic health care before consenting to treatment. This is called informed consent.

Chiropractic adjustments are the moving of bones with the physician's hands or with the use of a machine. Frequently, adjustments create a "popping" or "clicking" sound/sensation in the areas being treated.

In this office, we use trained assistants who may assist the physician with portions of your consultation, examination, x-ray taking, physical therapy application, traction, massage therapy, exercise instruction, etc. On the occasion when your physician is unavailable, your care may be handled by another physician or trained assistant.

Stroke: Stroke is the most serious problem associated with chiropractic adjustments. Stroke means that a portion of the brain does not receive oxygen from the blood stream. The results can be temporary or permanent dysfunction of the brain, with a very rare complication of death. The chiropractic adjustment that is related to the vertebral artery stroke is called Extension-Rotation-Thrust Atlas Adjustment. We DO NOT use this type of adjustments on our patients. Other types of neck adjustments may also potentially be related to vertebral artery strokes, but no one is certain. The most recent studies (Journal of the CCA Vol. 37, No. 2, June 1993) estimate that the incidence of this type of stroke is 1 per every 3,000,000 upper neck adjustments. This means that an average chiropractic would have to be in practice for hundreds of years before they would statistically be associated with a single patient stroke.

Disk Herniations: Disk herniations that create pressure on a spinal nerve, or the spinal cord are frequently successfully treated by chiropractors and chiropractic adjustment, traction, etc. This includes both in the neck and back. Yet, occasionally, chiropractic treatment (adjustments, traction, etc.) will aggravate the problem and rarely, surgery may cause a disc problem if the disc is in a weakened condition. These problems occur so rarely that there are no available statistics to quantify their probability.

Soft Tissue Injury: Soft tissue primarily refers to muscles and ligaments. Muscles move bones and ligaments limit joint movement. Rarely, a chiropractic adjustment (or treatment) may tear some muscle or ligament fibers. The result is a temporary increase in pain and necessary treatments for resolution, but there are no long term affects for the patient. These problems occur so rarely that there are no available statistics to quantify their probability.

Rib Fractures: The ribs are found only in the thoracic spine or mid-back. They extend from your back to your front chest area. Rarely, a chiropractic adjustment will crack a rib bone, and this is referred to as a fracture. This occurs only on patients who have weakened bones from conditions such as osteoporosis. Osteoporosis can be detected on your x-rays. We adjust all patients very carefully, and especially those with osteoporosis on their x-rays. These problems occur so rarely that there are no available statistics to quantify their probability.

Physical Therapy Burns: Some machines we use generate heat. We also use both heat and ice, and occasionally recommend them for home use. Everyone's skin has different sensitivity to these modalities and rarely, heat or ice can burn or irritate the skin. The result is a temporary increase in skin pain, and there may be some blistering of the skin. These problems occur so rarely that there are no available statistics to quantify their probability.

Soreness: It is common for chiropractic adjustments, traction, massage therapy, exercise, etc., to result in a temporary increase in soreness in the region being treated. This is nearly always a temporary symptom that occurs while your body is undergoing therapeutic change. It is not dangerous, but if it occurs, be sure to inform your physician.

Other Problems: There may be other problems or complications that might arise from massage therapy treatment other than those noted above. These other problems or complications occur so rarely that it is not possible to anticipate and/or explain them all in advance of treatment.

Chiropractic is a system of health care delivery, and therefore, as with any health care delivery system, we cannot promise a cure for any symptom, disease, or condition as a result of treatment in this clinic. We will always provide you with the best care and if results are not acceptable, we will refer you to another health care provider who we feel may assist your condition.

FINANCIAL POLICY

Please initial next to each section indicating your acknowledgement:

_____ REFERRALS: If you have a managed care plan, an HMO, or similar plan that requires a referral, you will need a referral from your primary care physician to see our providers. If your insurance requires a referral that is generated through them, you must reach out to your primary care office for them to call your insurance. It is not our policy to generate a referral for ourselves. If we have not received this referral prior to your arrival at our office, your appointment will either be rescheduled or you may be responsible for the entire bill. It is your responsibility to know if a referral is required and to obtain one.

_____ INSURANCE BENEFITS: Please be aware that when a patient requires a visit to a health care provider, there are diagnostic tests or procedures that may be suggested for appropriate care that may be done by one of our providers. These procedures may be done during the normal course of the exam by specialized personnel. Although necessary as part of routine evaluations, insurance companies often categorize these as procedures. The possible procedures which often are performed in this practice during your visit include, but are not limited to:

Trigger Point Injections
Autonomic Nervous System Tests
US guided Injections
EKG Evaluations
PRP/Amnio therapies

B-12 Injections
NCV/EMG tests
Doppler Studies
Joint Injections
Physical Rehabilitation/PT

Depending on your insurance policy provisions, these procedures and others may fall under a separate benefit other than your office co-pay, such as a deductible or coinsurance. In most cases, exact insurance benefits cannot be determined until the insurance company receives the claim. Therefore, any estimate for services will be considered an estimate only and any payment will be considered a partial-payment only until such time that the insurance company processes your claim. Your insurance is a contract between you and your insurance carrier; payment for services is ultimately your responsibility. It is extremely important for you to know your coverage. Many of the diagnostic and therapeutic procedures performed in our office (such as those listed above and others) are considered additional costs by your insurance company. Your health care providers are not aware of what additional costs may be incurred and will not review that with you. As health care providers, our physicians may recommend a diagnostic or therapeutic procedure available only to specialist physicians in order to provide you with the best possible treatment. If you have concerns regarding the cost of any procedure, you may ask your doctor if you can discuss the cost with our business staff BEFORE the procedure is performed to decide if you would like to have it done.

_____ WAIVER OF CONFIDENTIALITY: You understand if this account is submitted to an attorney or collection agency, if we have to litigate in court, or if your past due status is reported to a credit reporting agency, the fact that you received treatment and the type of treatment received at our office may become a matter of public record or disclosed to third parties.

After a divorce or separation, the parent authorizing treatment for a child will be the parent responsible to us for those subsequent charges.

_____ PERSONAL INJURY: If you are being treated as part of a personal injury lawsuit or claim, we require verification from your attorney prior to your initial visit. Payment of the bill remains the patient's responsibility.

Please understand upon settlement of your claim, the 3rd party carrier will NOT PAY US DIRECTLY; however, you remain fully responsible for payment of your account.
